

Core Structural Elements of Ladder

Core Principles Underlying Ladder:

- (1) Must have appropriate initial and subsequent step for each person—not so high the person falls off but high enough to represent mastery of a new skill
- (2) No pre-determined sequences—person can move up, down, and/or diagonally

